Kolkata Foundation launched a drive to “Help Kolkata survive the COVID second wave”. Kolkata Foundation has partnered with RHCF and Mukti – two organizations on the ground to distribute medicine packs, oxygen cylinders and concentrators to Kolkata, North and South 24 Parganas in West Bengal.

Giving Circle Foundation supported Kolkata Foundation to purchase oxygen concentrators and medicine kits.

One Billion Literates Foundation (OBLF) provides supplemental education to improve English and Technological literacy to under privilege children in rural Bangalore. As India faced the biggest COVID crisis during the second wave of infections in 2021, OBLF partnered with another non-profit organization Enablers United to launch Covid relief efforts.

Giving Circle Foundation contributions were used to setup their first covid care center and also to setup isolation centers tied to primary health centers in interior villages of state of Karnataka.

St. John’s Medical Hospital has been at the forefront of the battle against covid-19. To date they have catered to almost 20,000 patients and in an effort to continue their support in this pandemic they have put out a joint appeal on MILAAP to raise money for oxygen support, bedside oxygen concentrators, PPE’s, Food costs for patients and front-line workers, Hand sanitizer, Portable ultrasound for covid ICU’s and MRI compatible ventilators.

Giving Circle Foundation has made contributions to the MILAAP campaign setup by St.John’s Hospital Covid Care Appeal. Funds given by Giving Circle Foundation have been helpful to set up ICU beds.
